

GJGNY Worker Readiness

Richard Cherry, Community Environmental Center

David Hepinstall, Association for Energy Affordability

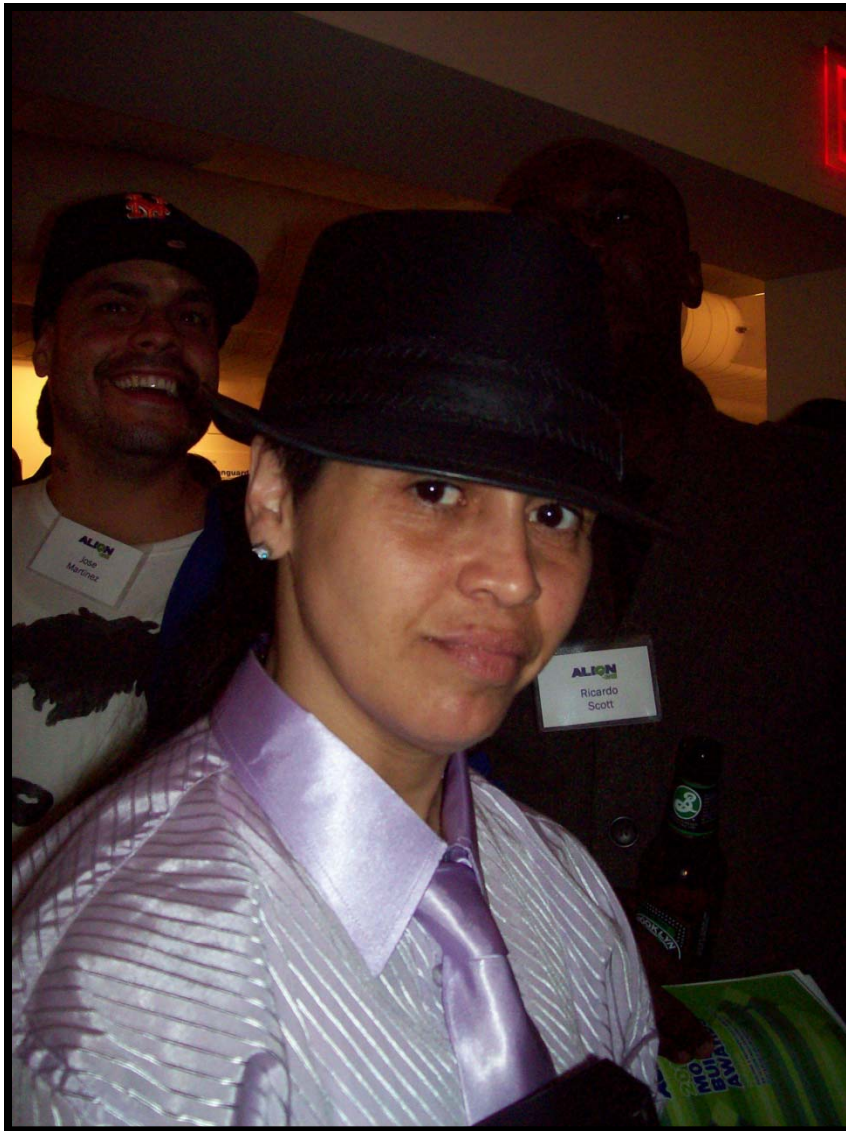

Rebecca Sterling, NYSERDA Workforce Development

June 15, 2011

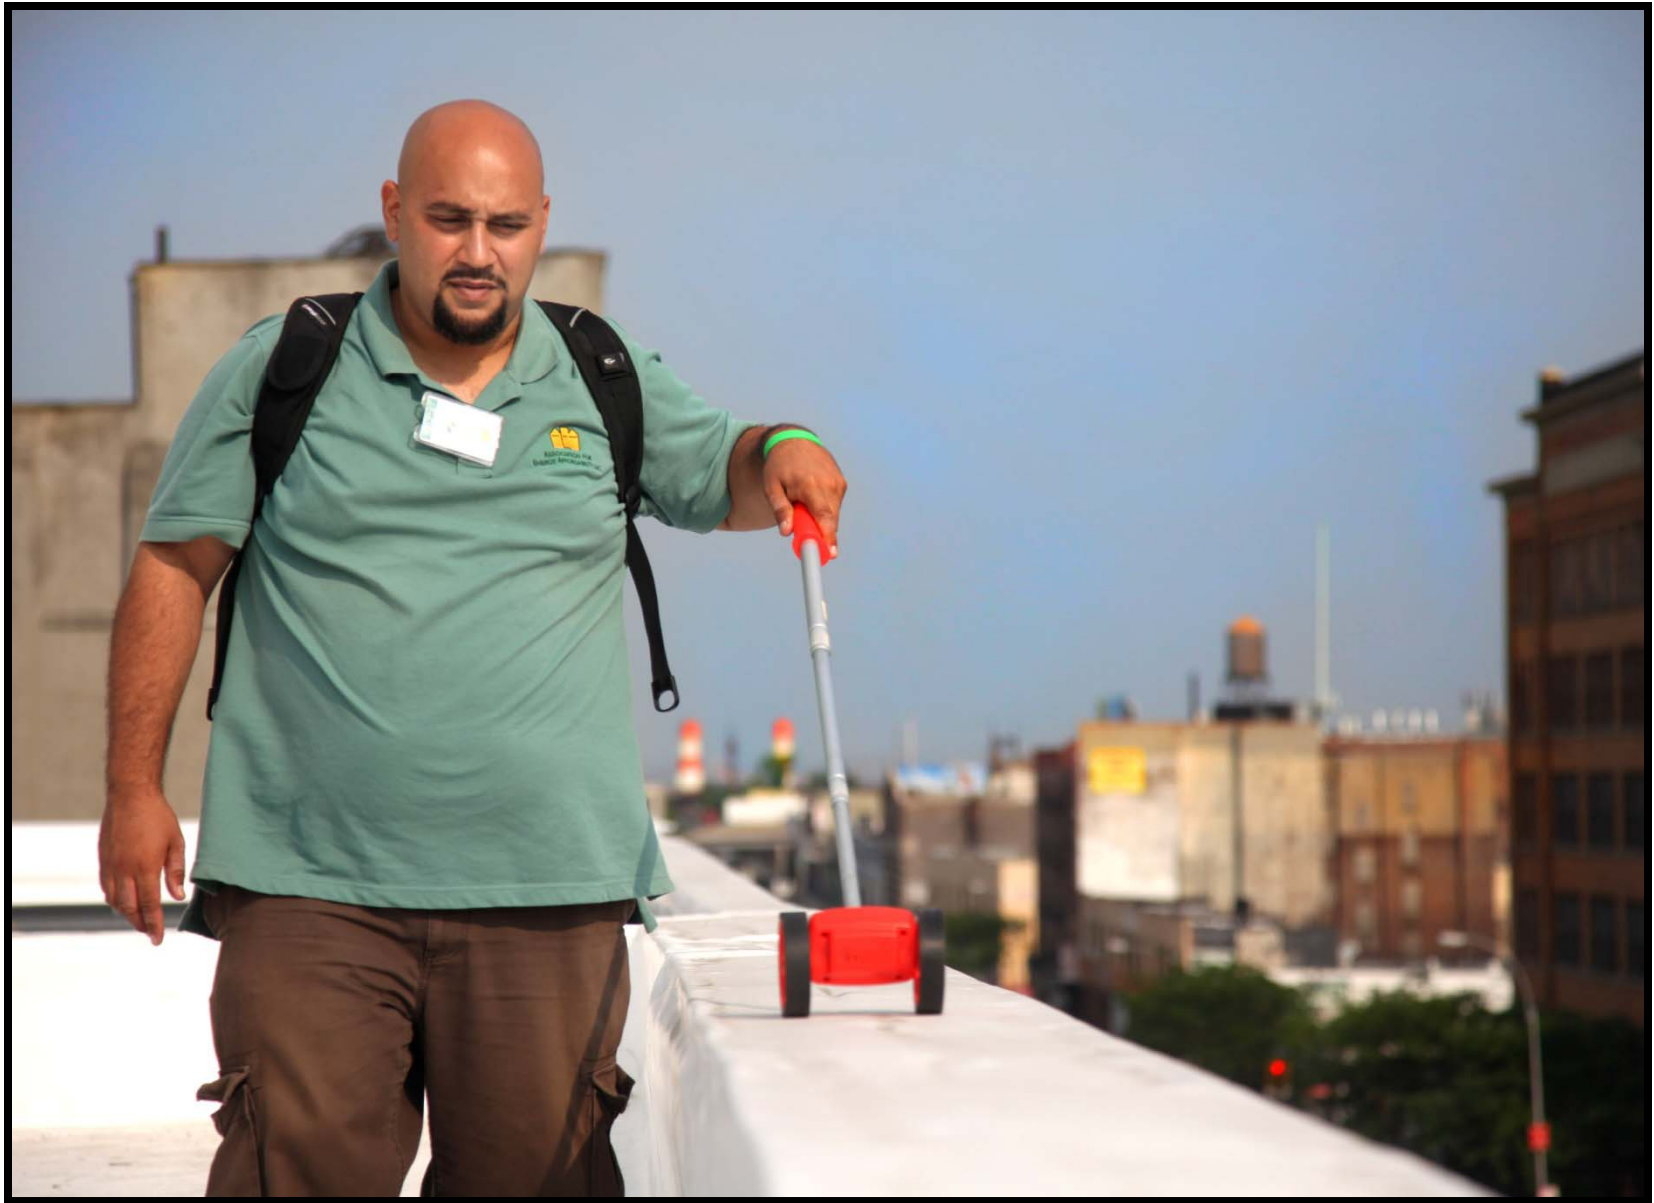

What are key elements in all of these success stories?

- Basic Skills Training
- Technical Training
- Hands on experience
- On-the-job Training (OJT)

What's next under GJGNY?

PON 2033

- Released June 8, 2011
- Includes 2 funding categories
 - A: Funding to enhance curriculum
 - B: Financial incentives for contractors to offset the costs associated with OJT

PON 2033 Overview

Category A: $800,000

- Funds to enhance curriculum to include energy efficiency in registered apprenticeship programs or building trades

Category B: $1,825,000

- Funds to support hiring for Contractors with a NYSERDA Partnership Agreement or Contract Agreement
- Up to $10K per new hire plus an additional $4K per new hire to offset training costs

For more information...

GJGNY solicitations:

www.nyserda.org/funding

Green Careers:

www.greencareersny.com

General questions:

rjs@nyserda.org

(518)862-1090 ext. 3618