Encouraging Community-Scale Clean Energy Planning to Benefit Lower-Income and Environmental Justice Communities

REVitalize

- REV provides new opportunities for consumers and communities over how energy is used and sourced
- Lower income and environmental justice communities face barriers to participating in the clean energy economy
- Intervention co-developed by NYS and community-based organizations
 - NYC-EJA, UPROSE, THE POINT, PUSH Buffalo, NYSERDA, Office of the Governor
 - Two tracks: CBO-led and NYSERDA funded
