

CASE 18-M-0084- In the Matter of a Comprehensive Energy Efficiency Initiative
NOTICE ANNOUNCING STATEWIDE LMI STAKEHOLDER WEBINAR

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that NYSERDA and the New York Utilities¹ will host a stakeholder session to discuss the development of the Statewide Low-to Moderate-Income (LMI) Portfolio, including an update on progress to date. The webinar will be held on June 22, 2022, from 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM.

BACKGROUND:

In the January 16, 2020 Order Authorizing Utility Energy Efficiency and Building Electrification Portfolios through 2025 (“Order”), the New York State Public Service Commission directed the New York Utilities and NYSERDA to develop and implement a Statewide LMI Portfolio to provide more complementary program offerings to increase the adoption of energy efficiency solutions for residential customers and in affordable multifamily buildings, improve customer experience and access to programs, and increase the impact of ratepayer funding administered in the LMI market segment. Following the Order, the New York Utilities and NYSERDA developed and filed an LMI Implementation Plan on July 24, 2020, and Version 2 on April 29, 2022, outlining the goals and components of the Statewide LMI Portfolio.

In accordance with the Order and as outlined in the Implementation Plan, two stakeholder meetings will be held annually. This webinar is the first of two stakeholder meetings in 2022. At the stakeholder webinar, the New York Utilities and NYSERDA will update progress made to date and seek input from stakeholders and market partners. Preliminary topics for this webinar are shown below.

Preliminary Webinar Topics

- LMI Multifamily Programs
- Partnerships with Affordable Housing Agencies
- LMI 1-4 Family Homes Program Evolution
- NY Energy Advisor
- Regional Clean Energy Hubs
- Near-term Priorities

Attendees are encouraged to ask questions during the webinar. In addition, stakeholders are invited to submit questions in advance of the webinar via email to LMIForum@nysERDA.ny.gov by June 16, 2022.
