

Subject: NYSERDA Resources: Re-Opening Our Schools Webinar and Clean Energy Trainings

Re-opening Our Schools Webinar and Clean Energy Trainings

We hope that this communication finds you, your families, and your colleagues well and in good health. As New York begins to reopen under NY Forward, we are focused on providing you with the support and resources necessary to ensure a safe return-to-work. Therefore, NYSERDA is sharing with you the following information to assist your school.

NYSERDA is committed to providing you with tools to help you through this challenging time and would like to share the following resources with your school:

Webinar

ASHRAE is coordinating a “Re-Opening Our Schools: Activities & Recommendations” webinar on June 16, 2020 at 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. ET, which will provide practical information in determining building readiness and operations for existing facilities to reoccupy after shut-down due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Trainings

NYSERDA has developed a Directory of Free Online Clean Energy Trainings. The directory identifies training opportunities on a variety of clean energy topics available online at no cost.

We are paying close attention to other resources and approaches that may support you and we will continue to provide information as it becomes available on the NYSERDA Response to COVID-19 webpage.

Please contact P12Schools@nyserdera.ny.gov with any feedback or questions related to your clean energy projects, NYSERDA programs, or COVID-19 assistance.
