REAL TIME ENERGY MANAGEMENT (RTEM) Revised Program Opportunity Notice (PON) 3689

New York State Energy Research and Development Authority

Revised May 2020 - The Real Time Energy Management (RTEM) Program seeks to achieve deep energy savings through the collection and analysis of energy usage data from buildings at a system level. To accelerate the adoption of RTEM practices, NYSERDA is offering cost-shared support for integrating RTEM systems and services into existing facilities.

Applicants to this program must first be qualified as a RTEM Qualified Vendor under RFQ 3691 Real Time Energy Management Qualified Vendor.
