

Proposed GJGNY Residential Loan Interest Rates for Sustainability

Green Jobs - Green New York Advisory Council
October 23, 2015

Principles

- Continue $3.49 \%$ for current LMI consumers (<=80\% AMI)
- Expand access to low-rate loans for consumers with income up to 120\% AMI
- Revise interest rate for consumers > 120\% AMI to operate program/fund sustainably

Changes

- Consumers <=80\% AMI - No change 3.49\%
- 81-120\% AMI - Change to 4.99\%
- >120\% AMI - Change to 7.99\% EE; 9.99\% PV

Effective Date

Applications received on or after December 1, 2015:

- Change 81-120\% AMI to 4.99\%
- Interim change >120\% AMI to 5.99\% (EE/PV)

Applications received on or after April 1, 2016:

- Final change >120\% AMI to 7.99\% EE/ 9.99\% PV
* NYSERDA to communicate changes to contractors, installers, CBOs and continue to promote information exchanges for market-based finance products

Considerations

- Market players standing ready for Market Rate financing
- These organizations have greater capital resources than GJGNY Fund
- Existence of subsidized GJGNY financing is currently delaying market entry
- Market providers not as well poised to serve LMI consumer market
- GJGNY Tier2 loan performance data will support more market providers
